Additional Information:

- This show is intended as an introduction for those who are wanting to try reined cow horse – the goal is a fun, friendly, and affordable show!
- A second show is planned for January 23-25th, 2026
- Circuit awards will be awarded for each division based on the results of the two shows
- No paybacks for any of the classes
- Cow practice time on Saturday morning is complimentary with NRCHA rider Ryan Gallentine – sign-up at the gate. Entries will be capped to start the show on time, but a horse / rider may go multiple times if time allows
- Equipment must be safe and humane, but otherwise rules are limited to allow flexibility based on level of horse and rider. A horse may be shown in snaffle/hackamore or bridle, regardless of age. Split reins, chain curb strap, etc. are allowed. Two hands may be used in a bridle in any class. Please check with the office if you have questions.
- All horses must be stalled – no jump outs are allowed
- All horses must have a negative Coggins on file with the office
- Cross-entry is allowed across divisions, provided a rider meets the requirements. A horse may only go in a class 1x (i.e. cannot have 2 riders on the same horse in the same class)
- Division Definitions:
  - Open Classes: open to any rider
  - Non-Pro Classes:
    - Rider must not have earned remuneration from training, giving lessons, or judging horse related events in the last 3 years
    - See NRCHA rules for any additional clarification on Non-Pro definition
  - Novice Non-Pro Classes:
    - Rider must meet non-pro requirements
    - Rider may not have won more than $1,000 in NRCHA
    - Sliding stops are not judged (no sliders required)
  - Youth Classes: 18&U as of January 1st of the calendar year
